1. Purpose

The SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 ('Regulations') require every Company whose Shares are listed on a Stock Exchange to put in place a Code of Practices and Procedures for Fair Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (UPSI) which would be followed by the Company for disclosure of UPSI. The Regulations further require that the Code should be based on the principles prescribed in Schedule A of the Regulations, without diluting the provisions contained in the Regulations.

2. Effective Date

This Code will be effective from the date of listing of the equity shares of the Company on the Stock Exchanges.

3. Terms and Definitions

- A. "Unpublished price sensitive information" ("UPSI") means any information, relating to a company or its securities, directly or indirectly, that is not generally available which upon becoming generally available, is likely to materially affect the price of the securities and shall, ordinarily including but not restricted to, information relating to the following:
- i. financial results;
 - ii. dividends;
 - iii. change in capital structure;
 - iv. mergers, de-mergers, acquisitions, delisting, disposals and expansion of business and such other transactions;
 - v. change in key managerial personnel; and
 - vi. material events in accordance with the listing agreement
- B. The term "Insiders" and "Immediate Relative" shall have the same meaning as proposed under the SEBI Insider Trading Regulations.
- C. Words and expressions used but not defined in this Code shall have the same meaning assigned to them in the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 or the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992, the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956, the Depositories Act, 1996 or the Companies Act, 2013 and the rules and regulations made thereunder, as the case may be or in any amendment thereto.

4. Scope

This Code shall be applicable and binding on all the employees, officers, directors and those persons authorized to speak on behalf of the Company.

This Policy shall be read with the Policy for Disclosure of Event / Information under SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015.

5. Principles of Fair Disclosure

To adhere to the principles as mentioned in Schedule A to the Regulations, HDFC Life shall ensure the following:

1. Prompt public disclosure of UPSI that would impact price discovery no sooner than credible and concrete information comes into being in order to make such information generally available;
2. Uniform and universal dissemination of UPSI to avoid selective disclosure;
3. Prompt dissemination of UPSI that gets disclosed selectively, inadvertently or otherwise to make such information generally available;
4. Appropriate and fair response to queries on news reports and requests for verification of market rumors by Regulatory Authorities;
5. The information shared with analysts and research personnel is not UPSI;
6. Develop best practices to make transcripts or records of proceedings of meetings with analysts and other investor relations conferences on the official website to ensure official confirmation and documentation of disclosures made;
7. Handling of all UPSI on a need-to-know basis

6. Investor Relations Officer

The Company would designate one of its senior officer as the Chief Investor Relations Officer (IRO) from time to time, who shall deal with the dissemination of information and disclosure of any UPSI.

No Employee must respond under any circumstances to inquiries from the stock exchanges, the media or others, unless authorized to do so by the Managing Director or Executive Director or the IRO. The matter shall be decided along with the Company Secretary, where necessary.

7. Disclosure of Information

1. The IRO shall ensure:
 - a. prompt public disclosure of UPSI that would impact price discovery no sooner than credible and concrete information comes into being in order to make such information generally available;
 - b. uniform and universal dissemination of UPSI to avoid selective disclosure; and
 - c. prompt dissemination of UPSI that gets disclosed selectively, inadvertently or otherwise to ensure that this information is made generally available.
2. Under certain circumstances, the Company may keep material information as specified under the Regulations confidential, for a limited period of time, because immediate disclosure may compromise certain strategic business opportunities of the Company or may not be disclosable due to third-party confidentiality restrictions or uncertainty of events, or the event has still not fully concretized. The determination of when to not disclose Material Information shall be made by the Managing Director and the Chief Executive Officer, or in his absence by the Executive Director and Chief Financial Officer of the Company.
3. It is clarified that information to be termed UPSI should be specific and intended to be generally made available at a point of time to ensure it does not lead to creation of a false market in securities. For the purpose of disclosure, the IRO may consult such officials within the Company to ensure the correctness and credibility of the UPSI.
4. The IRO shall authorise disclosure or dissemination of UPSI
 - a. by way of intimation to the stock exchanges, such that further disclosure can be made from the stock exchange websites;
 - b. on the official website to ensure official confirmation and documentation; and
 - c. in any other manner as may be decided by the IRO to facilitate uniform and universal dissemination of UPSI.
5. The IRO shall also be responsible for overseeing the contents of UPSI to be posted on the website of the Company for the purposes of this Code and shall give appropriate directions for the publication of the same. No other person shall be authorised to post any UPSI in the absence of any directions from the IRO.
6. To facilitate timely disclosure of UPSI, all employees, Designated Persons or Insiders will be required to communicate any UPSI to the IRO as soon as credible and concrete information comes into being.

7A. Information to be shared on a need-to-know basis

All employees, directors and insiders of the Company are required to ensure that handling of all UPSI, including onward communication, is done on a need-to-know basis and in line with the any other applicable codes, policies and procedures of the Company, including, specifically, this Code and the Insider Trading Code.

[The directors/ employees of the Company shall not discuss the matters or developments regarding the Company which in any way relate to UPSI with any other persons, except that are required to be disclosed in performance of his or her duties or under applicable laws or regulations or in legal proceedings. To protect UPSI from disclosure, the directors/ employees of the Company:

1. Should not discuss UPSI in public places where UPSI may be overheard (e.g., elevators, restaurants, airplanes, taxicabs) or participate in, host or link to Internet chat rooms, online social networking sites, newsgroup discussions or bulletin boards which discuss matters pertaining to the Company's activities or its securities;
2. Should not carry, read or discard UPSI in an exposed manner in public places;
3. Should not discuss UPSI with any other persons, except as required in performance of his or her duties;
4. Shall advise the other persons with whom they are meeting where UPSI may be disclosed, before the meeting, that they must not divulge the UPSI; and
5. Should not deal in the securities of the Company until the UPSI is publicly disclosed.

8. Unintentional/ Inadvertent Disclosure

In the event the Company makes an unintentional disclosure of material information as specified under the Listing Regulations, to public or any section or member(s) of public, it shall forthwith take steps to ensure that the same is disclosed to the stock exchanges immediately.

Further, if the Company becomes aware that there has been an inadvertent disclosure of such information it should immediately contact the IRO and/ or Company Secretary, who in consultation with Managing Director & Chief Executive Officer or Executive Director & Chief Financial Officer, shall consider the matter and take appropriate steps.

8A. Contacts with Financial Analysts, Investors and the Media

The Company communicates with its institutional shareholders through meetings with analysts and discussions between fund managers and management. The Company also participates at investor conferences from time to time. All interactions with institutional shareholders, fund managers and analysts are based on generally available information that is accessible to the public on a non-discriminatory basis.
